Dear Sister/Brother,

Despite these unusual times, the Oakville and District Labour Council continues to do what we can to build a more equitable society and advocate for workers in our region. The council continues to meet virtually, to address issues of inequality and workers' rights through our own advocacy and through financial contributions to progressive partners and community organizations.

This letter is to officially notify your organization of duties and responsibilities as members of the Oakville and District Labour Council as outlined in the Constitution of the Labour Council.

Article 3: Membership states:

1. "The Labour Council shall be composed of Local Unions, branches and lodges of national and international, regional and provincial organizations affiliated to the Canadian Labour Congress and local unions in the area chartered by the C.L.C. "
2. "Affiliates must provide Oakville and District Labour Council with a current list of delegates."

Article 14: Revenue states:

1. "A per capita tax shall be paid upon the full paid up membership for each organization."
2. "Each affiliated Local Union, Branch or Lodge, shall pay per capita tax of twenty-eight cents ($0.28) per dues paying member per month, with a minimum of $20.00 per annum."
3. "Any organization which does not pay its per capita tax on or before the time specified shall be notified of the fact by the Treasurer of the Council. Any organization three months in arrears of payment of per capita tax may become suspended from membership in the council and can be reinstated only after arrears are paid in full."

Dues are collected on a monthly basis for the current calendar year for all affiliates. Dues paid on any other basis will be credited to this calendar year, and pro-rated for a 12 month period for purposes of confirming voting delegates at regular meetings. Additional guests are always welcome.

For your use please find enclosed an "ODLC per capita dues form"; dues may be submitted either once per year for the total amount or on the monthly basis. Please forward this information to your treasurers and/or executive.

If you have any questions, you may contact the undersigned or the President, Maureen Weinberger at the email address above.

In Solidarity,

Mark Stupple
Secretary Treasurer, ODLC
