

2022 Labour Community Advocate Training

ABOUT THE COURSE

The Labour Advocate Training Program teaches union members to become a valuable resource in the community.

Learn from skilled facilitators and expert guest speakers on several subjects, including interview & referral skills, navigating social services, addiction and dependency, and grief.

SIGN UP FOR LEVEL 1 TODAY!

Register for Level 1 now at uwhh.ca/labour! 3-hour training sessions will take place in person every Wednesday from October 26 to December 14. Learning location TBD. This certificated program requires a $150 fee, which includes the cost of a personal workbook, classroom materials, and more. Stay tuned for information on Levels 2 and 3!

For any inquiries about the program, please contact labourcommunityservices@uwhh.ca

